HORSE AND OX SHOEING.

In Guayaquil, Ecuador, and get their name because Panama merchants formerly controlled the trade. They are made of pits fibre, a sort of palm, and are braided under water by native women. The strands are often twelve and fifteen feet long and fine as hair. It takes two or three weeks to braid a single hat, which sells for five or six dollars, and lasts for ever. A traveller speaks of one made of a single straw or fibre, and fine as thread and soft as silk. The woman who made it was engaged four months in the work, and it was valued at 250 dollars.

The semi-annual apportionment of State school money has been made. The fund amounts to $353,234 17. The school children number 271,590—an increase of 11,617 over last year. San Francisco increased 4,167; Alameda 1,112; Los Angeles 27; Santa Clara 549; Sacramento 235; Sonoma 194. Solano decreased 425. It is in order for Los Angeles to step to the front and explain why that county has increased only 27, while the central and more Northern counties, which have not enjoyed a boom, have increased ten times that number.—Bro. Osborn, of the Los Angeles Express, has the floor!

On Monday last James Martin fell from the Brooklyn Bridge, 130 feet, and escaped injury. He struck on his chest, went under and came up dazed. A fireman of the William Logan jumped overboard and caught him, but, slipping from his grasp, he sank the second time, whereupon the fireman dove and took him safely to the steamer.

An earthquake in Twiggs county, Kentucky, on Monday last, caused the farm of Z. P. Hayden, midway between the Cumberland and Tennessee rivers, settled four or five feet. There are 300 acres in the farm, and on Tuesday it began to fill, and became a lake.

The San Francisco banks refusing to loan more money on wheat, W. Dresbach, of that city, is cornered. Flour may drop a little. The sooner such men go under, the better. A man who speculates on the necessities of the people should be effectually "cinched."

George H. Marshall was stabbed to death in the San Francisco Jail on Tuesday night, by his cell-mate, Nicola Parolillo. After two hours' efforts to get him to surrender, he having a knife in his hand, and threatening to kill the officers, he was shot in the hip, and then taken from the cell.

John Beall, 13 years old, who has been in jail at Eaton, Ohio, for six weeks on a charge of killing his mother, has confessed that he shot her, and attempted to cut her head off with an ax. He was angry from thinking that favoritism was shown his sister.

Charges have been made that Surveyor-General Hammond is getting rich too fast. Taking the office, about two years ago, a poor man, he is one of the purchasers of the water works at Visalia. It is probable that an Agent from the Land Office will be sent to San Francisco to investigate.

M. F. Cummings, foreman of the State bindery from its commencement, has been removed to make way for brother of Senator Creighton, of San Francisco. As the Senator is charged with being a jury fixer, he may have fixed the Superintendent.

Valuable beds of niter have been found near Eureka, Nev. The rock formation in which it occurs forms a considerable part of the mountain, and steps have been taken to further prospect the beds.

The Birmingham, Alabama, Age, Dem., says that the North, with fewer natural advantages than the South, has grown rich and powerful under the protective tariff, and so may the South.

Jeff Davis has again been heard from—he thinks the world is governed too much, hence opposes the prohibition amendment in Texas.

Mrs. John A. Logan, who was thrown from a buggy, is in a critical condition.

O. P. Richardson, of Lincoln, who was run away with on July 29th, died the 30th.

George Chase, of Santa Ana, suicided on July 29th.

On July 30th, Redding was again visited by a destructive fire.

THE REPUBLICAN PRESS.

We regret to see Republican papers slandering prospective candidates for the Republican Presidential nomination because they do not favor the man they slur. It is impossible to please all; many will be "left," and the friends of the successful candidate at the National Republican Convention to be held next year will claim, and naturally expect, a united Republican support of their favorite. Unfriendly criticisms of prominent Republicans in the Republican press will be carefully clipped by Democratic editors and stump speakers for use during the campaign. "As showing the Republican opinion of their Presidential candidate before he was nominated," and they will use them for all they are worth, with headlines and italics, and with more or less effect. We are admirers of James G. Blaine, as the greatest of American Statesmen, and hope he will receive the nomination next year, and triumphantly elected to the highest position man can attain in this world, but we do not think the Republican party is scarce of Presidential timber, and that Mr. Blaine is the only Republican fitted for the Presidency of this great country. There are scores of Republicans in the country capable of giving us a brilliant Administration, and we have no fears that the next National Convention will have any difficulty in selecting a capable candidate, should Mr. Blaine not get the nomination. Since their first nomination, the National Republican Conventions have made no mistakes, although new men were sometimes presented for the suffrages of the American people, and that of next year will make no mistake. While the Democratic papers have their preferences, they, with one or two exceptions, carefully refrain from publishing uncomplimentary comments on their prospective candidates, and it would be in good taste for Republicans to do the same. If the Republicans hope to bounce the Democratic Administration next year, they must exhibit a greater degree of unanimity.

The Democrats are badly scared over the result of the Kentucky election. Instead of the usual 60,000 majority, it will require the official vote before it is known which party has elected the Governor, the Democrats, however, claim 8,000 majority. Seventy-three counties show a Republican gain of 24,000, and the remaining counties, which are strongly Republican, will probably elect their Governor, should the proportion of gains hold out. The Courier-Journal says the Democrats stand at home. Who ever heard of a live Den or rat not voting? The Prohibitionists polled 14,000 votes.

About three weeks ago J. L. Blair and partner left Los Angeles to prospect in San Diego county. His partner left camp for a few days, and upon returning he found it deserted, but two half-starved mules, clothing and blankets remained. Search being made, the body of Blair was found in the brush 130 yards distant. BLAINE'S LATEST BOOK.—

We have received from the J. Downing Company, San Francisco, a copy of James G. Blaine's latest book, "Political Discussions, Legislative, Diplomatic and Popular," from 1856 to 1886. This is a work of 595 pages, and contains fine portraits of Blaine and the lamented Garfield, with the most notable speeches of America's greatest Statesman, with his diplomatic correspondence, on important public matters that have engrossed the attention of the American people these many years. His diplomatic correspondence on South American affairs, and on the proposition of France to offer to arbitrate the difficulties between Chili and Peru, while he was Garfield's Secretary of State, are worthy of being read and re-read by every American. The selections end with his memorable Memorial Address on the death of Garfield. It is a work that will find favor with the American people, and no library, public or private, should be without it, and the admirers of the man who is destined to be our next President will appreciate his thoughtfulness in compiling so many of his masterpieces in this his latest book.

CHRONICLE-UNION.

BRIDGEPORT, AUGUST 6, 1887.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Personal.
Superintendent Marden, of the Silver Hill Mill, Aurora, was in town on Monday. Administrator B. T. Brown came up from Newburg on Wednesday.

County Clerk O. H. Kister and Miss Naomi J. Angell, late Superintendent of Public Schools, were married at Silver City, Nev., July 28th. The happy couple arrived here, their future home, on Saturday evening last.

Don Simpson, one of the cattle kings of this section, was in town this week. S. B. Burkham, of Lundy, is enjoying Bridgeport hospitality.

John B. Gallagher, of Mason Valley, is in town on irrigation business. Judge J. E. Goodall is at Sam. Fales' Hot Springs, enjoying a rheumatic attack.

Mrs. Judge Leavitt is rapidly recovering from her late serious illness.

Rev. Geo. B. Hinkle will pass through town on Monday, on his way to Carson, to attend Conference. His wife will accompany him.

Mrs. Ben. H. Miller, Julia Allen, Robert A. Cameron and Edward Murphy left this morning for Yosemite, to be absent ten days.

ELECTION OF SUPERVISORS.—The late Legislature made a material change in the law relating to the filling of vacancies in Boards of Supervisors. Heretofore the Governor had the power to appoint a person, to hold until the next general election. The new County Government bill reads as follows:

SECTION 17.—Whenever a vacancy occurs in the Board of Supervisors of a county, the Governor may fill the vacancy by appointment, and the appointee shall hold the office until the election and qualification of his successor, as hereinafter provided. Whenever a vacancy occurs in the Board of Supervisors of a county, the Board shall order a special election to be held in said district, on the fifth Tuesday after the vacancy occurs, for the election of a Supervisor for the unexpired term, unless a general election shall be held within ninety days after the vacancy occurs; and in such case the election of a Supervisor shall be held at the general election, to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

As there may be two vacancies in our Board before the first of January, the Democrat who has been figuring on having two of his party fill the prospective vacancies by appointment of Governor Bartlett, will probably be sadly disappointed. 'Twas ever thus.

Dogs.—The last Legislature very properly amended Section 491 of the Penal Code to read as follows:

"Dogs are personal property, and their value is to be ascertained in the same manner as the value of other property."

As this sensible enactment did not become a law until March 15th, County Assessors could not act under it this year, but next year we will look for an increase in the assessment roll of this county to the amount of $1,000,000 more than the present one—provided Assessor Welsh values them as their owners do—after a dog has been poisoned, as we often hear the owner of a dead dog say, "I wouldn't have taken a thousand dollars for that dog,"—and we have some five hundred, more or less, of such canines in our town.

FORGIVEN.—When County Clerk Kister left here about two weeks ago he made us tell a "wrong story"—so foreign to our nature, by saying he was going to wicked San Francisco, when he really went to Silver City, Nev., where the Angels dwell; but as he returned home on Saturday last, accompanied by one of God's best gift to man, we freely forgive him with our blessings.

IRRIGATION.—John B. Gallagher, of Mason Valley, Esmeralda county, Nevada, is here investigating as to the practicability of damming Twin Lakes, to increase their depth four or five feet, that Mason Valley may be irrigated. The valley is dependent upon Walker River for a second crop, but, as it is nearly dry, that crop is a failure this year, hence the Twin Lakes' project.

COUNTY TREASURY.—On the 1st inst. A. F. Hector, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors, District Attorney Virden, and Auditor Kister counted the moneys in the Treasury and found therein what actually ought to have been there—$28,121 03.

HAYING.—Our farmers have been busy the past two weeks cutting their hay, which will be a fair crop, and better than many anticipated. While some have finished, others will be at it some two weeks longer.

FISH AND GAME LAWS.—The last Legislature passed an Act authorizing Boards of Supervisors to establish close seasons for fish and game.

THE MOCKING BIRD.—The delinquent sale of the Mocking Bird M. & Co. will take place in San Francisco on Wednesday next.

STANDARD CON. BULLION.—The Standard Con., at Bodie, on Tuesday last shipped a little over $9,000.

MORE FREIGHT.—Dotan's, Nay's and Russell's teams have put in an appearance this week with more freight for our merchants.

NEXT WEEK.—New advertisements of S. L. Munson, of Bodie, and Hale, Bros. & Co., of Sacramento, will appear next week.

SOME TROUT.—On Sunday O. F. Stro, bridge caught a six pound trout in Buckeye Creek. It measured 29 inches.

To-day is quite breezy.

NEW ROAD LAWS.

The Legislature last Winter amended the Road law by empowering the Supervisors to divide road districts into sections, upon petition of a majority of freeholders of one or either of the districts. This being done, they must advertise four weeks, for bids to maintain the roads in such sections for a term of two years. The contract shall be awarded to the lowest responsible bidder, who must reside in the district in which the section is located, and give a bond equal to the amount of the contract, per annum, for the faithful performance of the work. Any and all bids may be rejected. The road poll taxes of such sectionized districts are to be collected by the Road Overseer of the district, fifteen per cent. to be allowed for collecting. The work on the roads shall be inspected by the Road Overseer of the district, who must report quarterly, and on his favorable report the contractor is to be paid quarterly, on approval by the Board of Supervisors. The Board shall cause to be kept a book showing the number of the sections in each district, the boundaries, length in miles and fractions, names of contractors amounts of contracts, and the cost of maintaining an average mile of road under the contract system.

It strikes us very forcibly that our roads could be kept in better order under the contract system, although it might cost more, than by the present, for the reason that a contractor would constantly be on the alert and watchful, knowing that a "stitch in time" often saves much work. We recommend the Board to try it.

Supervisors are ex-officio Road Commissioners in their respective districts, and it is made their duty to look after the Road Overseers in their districts, and see that the roads are kept in order. At the general election next year, and every two years thereafter, Road Overseers are to be elected, to serve two years.

DECEASED.—Robert P. Fouke, a well-known resident of Bodie from 1878 to 1885, died at the home of his daughter at Mt. Carroll, Illinois, on the 24th of July, aged 74 years, 3 months and 11 days, having been born in 1813. "Uncle Bob," as he was familiarly called by his legion of friends in Mono county, was a California Pioneer, and during his residence in Bodie was an active Democrat, to whom the younger members of his party looked for advice. He was a good citizen and universally respected by all who knew him. Besides his Illinois relatives, he leaves a son, Richard R. Fouke, of Bodie, to mourn his departure.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

AURORA ITEMS.—We call the following Aurora items from the Hawthorne Bulletin of Wednesday last:

The Esmeralda Con. is prospecting well. A large and wonderfully rich vein has been struck in their Durand shaft, a continuation of the rich ledge discovered some time ago, but lost through a break. The vein is about two feet thick and appears to be permanent. The ore sparkles with gold, and assays run from $180 to $2,000 a ton. The richest part is nine inches wide, but all the ore is good. The Company renews work with most encouraging prospects and ample capital, and those who have stood by the old camp believe the "good time coming" is at hand.

The Antelope and Silver Lining mines are at a looking well.

On Friday of last week the Silver Hill Mill shipped a $2,000 brick, from Antelope ore.

Manager App and Director Crowder, of the Esmeralda Con. have gone to Plymouth, Amador county, where they have large mining interests. They are much pleased with their Esmeralda prospects.

John Parr has been retained as foreman of the Esmeralda Con., and all the men applying are given work.

E. P. Davis, an old resident of Aurora, and custodian of the old Court House, died in that town on Sunday last, aged 70 years.

W. J. Vernon has been appointed by the County Commissioners custodian of the old Court House, vice E. P. Davis, deceased.

Earl & Co. have put an another big team to accommodate the Aurora and Bodie trade.

INVO INDEX.—C. W. Craig, late publisher of the Trinity Journal, has commenced the publication of the Invo Index at Independence. Mr. Craig was a candidate before the last Republican State Convention for Secretary of State, and had been nominated we might have had another Republican in the State Capitol and one Democrat less. The first issue of the Index looks well and is well up in its locale. We hope our sister county will be able to support its three papers handsomely, but just now, with three in the field, it looks as if "grass would be short" for all.

WHAT HE WANTS.—Our friend, Silas B. Smith, of Bodie, don't "want the arth," but he does want, and merits, a share of public patronage, as he has a fine stock of goods in store for the Spring and Summer trade—for "Spot Cash." And it is surprising, the amount of goods a few American dollars will get away with from Silas B. Smith. See his new advertisement on the second page.

TATTOOING IN JAPAN.

The skill of the Japanese in tattooing is remarkable, and in Bodie, a physician in the employ of the Japanese Government, has communicated a large number of curious and hitherto unknown facts regarding the strange custom of tattooing as practiced in Japan. As to the origin there nothing very definite has been ascertained. It is certainly in Japan has no religious meaning or conventional significance. Unlike some other peoples the Japanese usually tattoo those portions of the body which are covered by clothing, and yet it seems that the only purpose the marks serve is that of personal adornment. Some certain tribes of the Orient tattoo the chiefs and persons of distinction: elaborately tattooed; in Japan only the lower orders of society and very rarely women undergo the process.

A Japanese when he desires to be tattooed goes to an artist with the design he wishes to have indelibly imprinted on his body. The artist sketches the design more or less in full detail, as the circumstances of the case may require, on the skin of his patron. Then, taking a wooden tool in which fine sewing needles are firmly fixed, the artist applies Indian ink or a red color made from cinnabar to the design of the needles, holds the tool in the right hand, which rests on the thumb of the left hand, and proceeds to puncture the skin with marvellous rapidity, pausing at intervals to take on the needles a fresh supply of color. No blood is drawn except sometimes when a deep shade is required, or when rings or other shows and knags. In a day or two the tattoo is complete a picture requiring a few hundred thousand punctures, in a manner surprising for its accuracy, and varied and delicate degree of shading.

When the work is finished the skin is bathed with warm water, which gives a slight pain to the patient, but brings out the color with great distinctness. The only inconvenience experienced is a slight feverish feeling, which soon passes away. The tattooed parts are never irritable or sensitive, and there need be no cessation of usual work. As the end of the design the skin scales off like bark from the punctured surface, leaving the portion blue that had been treated with the Indian ink, and those red which had been touched with the cinnabar.

Story of Macaulay.

A correspondent of the Critic relates the following story of Macaulay: "When I was in London in the fifties, among my haunts was an old, low-ceiled tavern with a saloon floor two feet below the level of the sidewalk. I used to go there and drink 'alf and 'alf.' One day while I was sitting beside a table, a large man in a cloak entered. His face was round, pale, and heavy but his eyes were bright, and his bushy eyebrows silvery and down with quick changes of expression. He sat down at the table next to mine, and directly a waiter came in with a big plate of bread and cheese, and a glass of ale, and set it before him. He ate and drank heartily, and after finishing his lunch sat upright, and rested his hands on a heavy cane. Suddenly he reached for his empty glass and hurried it to the floor with all his strength, smashing it into shivers. He sat for a minute longer, then got up slowly, 'tipped' the waiter, paid his reckoning at the bar, and passed out. He had not uttered a word. The waiter got a broom, swept up the pieces of glass and cleared the table. I asked him if the gentleman's intellect was a little in need of repair. 'Oh no, sir,' said he. 'That's no thing unusual with him, sir. Wy, he's broke maybe a hundred glasses since he's been a-comin' to this 'ouse. E don't know when e does it. E's a-thinkin', and it seems like he got mad at something e was thinkin' about.' 'Who is he?' 'Lord Macaulay, sir.'"

Redemption of Trade Dollars.

Congress, at its last session, provided that any person holding trade dollars might present them to the Treasury or any sub-Treasury, or Mint of the United States for redemption in standard silver dollars. The period for such redemption expires on the 1st of next September. The amount thus far redeemed is less than seven million dollars. The most of those who held these dollars in any considerable amounts have undoubtedly already presented them for redemption. There is probably a considerable amount of these dollars remaining yet unredeemed, scattered through the country in comparatively small sums, and held by owners who originally received them at their face value. We call the attention of these owners to the fact that the time for their redemption by the Government will soon expire.

A Long-lived Family.

A correspondent states that he has just conducted an insurance upon the life of a man aged 102 years. This centenarian enjoys good health, and appears to be in possession of his faculties. He states that his father lived to the age of 110, and met his death from an injury due to the breaking of a mill stone. His grandfather was, he asserts, accidentally killed in his mill at the age of 124. His great-grandfather lived to the age of 132. The man in question distinctly remembers his great grandfather, and has now living a great-grand-niece, so that he has seen seven generations of his family.—Laurel.

What Soap Has Done for the Holy Land.

The introduction of soap, it is said, is doing much to civilize the people of the Holy Land. A large soap factory has been established on the site of ancient Shechem, and the people are beginning to use it on their persons instead of trying to eat it as they did at first. Along with the introduction of soap other reforms are going on. Bethlehem has been rebuilt, and the streets are lighted with gas. Caesarea is having a building boom. Nazareth is becoming the headquarters of big olive oil speculators. Corner lots in Joppa are going up with a rush, and real estate on Mt. Carmel is largely held by speculators for an advance. All around Shechem there is a lively demand for good soap-fat, and the sleepy inhabitant of Ramoth Gilead think of building a glue factory. Jerusalem is waking up, too. It has a street cleaning bureau, its streets on its public buildings, and its suburbs are being built up rapidly. Even in the valleys of Gehenna the price of land has gone up.

Manufacturer of Acorn Dress Shirts, Collars, Cuffs, Shirt Fronts, Ladies' Collars and Lace Neckwear, ALBANY, N. Y.

The latest shirt issued under the 'Acorn' Brand is 'THE WONDER,' and it is also the best shirt ever made for the Trade.

The following are some of its principal points of excellence, a printed list of which is attached to each shirt:

- 1st—It has the finest and heaviest muslin ever put in a shirt, (Utica Nonpareil improved).
- 2nd—It has a 3-ply linen bosom.
- 3rd—It is of extra length.
- 4th—It is reinforced, both back and front, extending and meeting under the arm where most needed.
- 5th—It has the Tomlinson patent endless facing.
- 6th—It is custom made and finish.
- 7th—It cannot break or tear anywhere.

Like the Deacon's "one-hoss shay," it has no weak spot, and will never "give" anywhere, but, at the end of scores of years, it will dissolve into space—not a thread broken or a seam started.

Fathers will bequeath these shirts, purchased in early manhood, a pious legacy to their children.

We expect a large demand for them to place in the corner stones of public structures as evidence of the greatest triumph of modern civilization.

We are taking steps to put this crowning achievement of art into the "Acorn" agencies in London, Paris, Berlin, St. Petersburg and Constantinople, when it can not fail of instant and permanent success.
